Bondhus Adds Line of Pliers and Cutters

Bondhus Corporation, through its' German marketing partner - FELO, introduces a line of high quality pliers and cutters. These German-made hand tools have super hard gripping and cutting surfaces and cushioning hand grips. Each tool is machined to exacting German standards, and the result is tools that deliver fantastic performance and last a lifetime. These pliers and cutters complement an already full line of high quality screwdrivers and screwdriver bits.

FELO is a world leader in the development and manufacture of high quality tools. These FELO products can be ordered from Bondhus distributors all across the USA. For a listing of stocking distributors near you, visit the Bondhus website at www.bondhus.com.
