This scholarship is given in memory of Larry Reynolds, a well-respected; Danville businessman, Chamber member and Chamber board member of which he served for many years. He was unselfish and believed in giving of his time and efforts to make Danville a great place to live and to promote college scholarships for High School Seniors.

This scholarship is open to any Danville Community High School senior who is pursuing further education after high school at either a college or university, technical or vocational school, or any other institution of higher learning.

At least one scholarship will be awarded to a student who plans on attending a technical, vocational school or trade program.

At least one scholarship will be awarded to a student who plans on attending a traditional, 4 year college.

Qualifications:

1. Must be a senior at Danville Community High School
2. Must live in Hendricks County, Indiana

The “Larry Reynolds Memorial Scholarship” is based on academics and accomplishments. It is also based on the commitment to community and public service. The scholarship check will be made payable to the educational facility designated by the scholarship recipient for the benefit of the recipient. The funds will be paid at the end of the first semester with proof of satisfactory completion of classwork.

The application and your transcript must be received at the address below by Noon on May, 9th or applications may be accepted electronically by sending them to shelby@danvillechamber.org.
