SHORE FISHING

Devils Lake has quadrupled in size from about 40,000 acres in 1990 to a sprawling lake with hundreds of shoreline miles, which offer a host of opportunities for anglers. There may be more places to catch walleyes from shore (and white bass, perch and pike) than any other lake in the country. Many roads were cut-off with rising waters, but were built up with rip rap boulders and now have deep water adjacent, which fish and fishermen love.

Anglers park off-road, pay attention to passing traffic, walk to their spots and enjoy some of the finest lawn-chair fishing anywhere. Spring pike and walleye fishing from shore is a neighborly affair for the entire family.

SPRING & SUMMER

Paul Bunyan and thousands of his Minnesota friends love to fish Devils Lake. So do people from all over the country because there is no closed season, fish limits are generous and something – perch, walleyes, pike or white bass – always seems to be biting.

Fisheries, biologists and anglers alike know that numbers of foot-long and larger perch are at record numbers. Pike of the line-stretching variety are big and hungry. Regional biologists say, “Eat more pike.” With pike averaging nearly five pounds, anglers can expect to catch 10-pounders with many trophies.

Walleyes are the main attraction with all sizes present from “eaters” to wall-hangers. Visiting anglers love fishing for walleye on Devils Lake because they can fish just like they do back home – slip bobbers, rigging, jigging, casting or trolling crank baits, and pulling bottom bouncers with spinners. Open-water walleye action begins at ice-out, but picks up lake-wide in June with no summer doldrums. Walleyes bite and are caught best in June, July and August. Fall is trophy time. The fourth main species, white bass, reaches bragging size of three to four pounds and bite year-round. Then, the ice season takes over and the fish keep biting.

The numbers show how much anglers love Devils Lake. One-fourth of all nonresident three-day and 10-day fishing licenses are sold in Devils Lake.

With a $600,000 budget (state and local funding and grants), these piers create new fishing hotspots with ramps for physically impaired and elderly anglers – kids too. Piers have been installed at these popular shore fishing locations: Channel A, Henegar Landing, and Pike Playground and Fishing Pier. A fourth pier has also been installed at the Lakewood Beach area on Creel Bay. With or without a boat, from shore or the middle of the lake, anglers will catch fish on Devils Lake.
ICE FISHING

Devils Lake is the Number One destination for North American ice anglers. More than 15,000 fishermen head onto the ice with guides each winter. Thousands more travel to north-central North Dakota for their DIY fishing adventures.

Most visitors book fishing packages via the resorts, motels or guide services where everything is provided, including gear, tackle, transportation on ice, shelters, fishing tips and lessons. One call does it all.

Zippy Dahl, founder of the world famous Perch Patrol said, “Perch fishing was great last year; I expect it to be even better this winter. Hiring a guide is like a short-cut because our guides are on the ice daily. They know where to go, what to use, offer quality trips and create a lifetime of memories.”

TV host and fishing guide Jason Mitchell loves perch and walleye, but reminded Devils Lake anglers to consider northern pike, “Pike over 40 inches are caught every season. Make a pike party; catching 50 a day is not uncommon.”

The winner of the 2017 Chamber of Commerce walleye tournament, Scott VanOverbeke said, “You can catch fish every day, doing what you love to do.” Winner of the National Walleye Tour event and $63,926, Dylan Nussbaum, drove from Pennsylvania and said, “I love Devils Lake. It’s my favorite place to fish. There are so many fish.”

Guide and resort owner Aaron McQuoid said, “We teach while our clients catch fish. The more they learn, the more tricks they take home to use on their local waters.” Respected fishing promoter and ice fishing professor Brian “Bro” Brosdahl said, “This is one place where I know a number of species of true trophy size can be caught in a day.”

Guide Ancil Reynolds said, “I move to where the fish are. This winter will showcase the lake’s 12-14 inch jumbo perch.” His clients often elect to fish for pike. He said, “Until clients run for tip-ups all day long, they don’t realize how much fun pike can be.”

State fisheries folks urge anglers to catch, fillet and take home their limits of pike.

After one of the best walleye “bites” in years this past open-water season, the 2020-2021 walleye ice fishing is expected to be rated A-plus this winter. Anglers are treated most days to combo trips: walleyes early and late with perch and pike during the day.

Limits are generous with 20 perch daily; 40 in possession.

Pike and walleye limits are five daily and 10 in possession.

Seasons never close on Devils Lake. The Devils Lake area motels, resorts and community have the most indoor, heated fish-cleaning stations per capita than any other locale.

Make this the year to experience what the rest of the fishing world knows — ice fishing is king on Devils Lake.

FISHING REGULATION HIGHLIGHTS
- A fishing year is defined as April 1 in any calendar year through March 31 of the following calendar year.
- The licensee shall carry the fishing license on his/her person at all times while fishing.
- Any nonresident under the age of 16 years may take and possess a limit of fish without a nonresident license if accompanied by an adult possessing a valid fishing license.
- ND law permits the use of boats legally numbered under the numbering system of another state for a period of 90 days.
- Ice houses are no longer required to be licensed. An unoccupied house does require identification. The house must display on its outside, in characters at least 3 inches high, owner's name and address or phone number.
- All aquatic vegetation must be removed from boats, personal watercraft, trailers, and fishing and hunting equipment such as fishing poles, bait buckets, lures, duck decoys, and waders before leaving a body of water. That means "vegetation free" when transporting watercraft and/or equipment away from a boat ramp, landing area or shoreline.
- Live aquatic bait or aquatic vegetation may not be transported into North Dakota.
- All water must be drained from boats and other watercraft, including bilges, live wells, baitwells and motors before leaving a body of water.
- All drain plugs that may hold back water must be removed, and water draining devices must be open on all watercraft and recreational, commercial and construction equipment bilges and confined spaces during any out-of-water transport of same.
- All water must be drained from bait buckets as anglers leave the shore or remove their boats from the water. Anglers must properly dispose of unused bait away from the river, as dumping bait in the water or on shore is illegal. In all other waters not infested with Class I ANS species, anglers can transport live bait in water containers of five (5) gallons or less in volume.

AQUATIC NUISANCE SPECIES
Help preserve our lake and prevent transfer of Aquatic Nuisance Species (ANS). Wash your boat, trailer, and pickup prior to entering Devils Lake. Also, to keep other organisms from spreading into our lake, clean and disinfect your live wells and other places lake water accumulates. Your cooperation is appreciated.

ANS SURCHARGE FEES
Starting in 2020, a surcharge will be added to certain game and watercraft licenses to support the Aquatic Nuisance Species Program Fund. All boats licensed in North Dakota will include this surcharge when renewing the license. Boats not licensed in North Dakota are required to pay an annual fee and display an ANS sticker to legally operate watercraft on state waters.

LICENSING SALES:

For information about nonresident hunting licenses, visit http://gf.nd.gov/licenses/.

Hunter education is required for anyone born after 1961. Be sure to have a copy of your hunter education certificate handy when applying for a license. Nonresidents under the age of 16 from the states of MN, MI, MS, TN, TX and CO can buy North Dakota hunting licenses at resident prices because their states offer the same opportunity to North Dakota youth.

The operator of the oldest continuous waterfowl hunting operation in North Dakota for 28 years, Kyle Blanchfield owns Woodland Resort on Devils Lake. He said, “Devils Lake is one of the best waterfowl spots anywhere.” Duck and goose hunting usually occurs in mornings, and the popular “Cast and Blast” lodging/guide packages mean walleye fishing in the afternoons/evenings.

Early season is all about field, pothole and back-bay hunting for local ducks. The main-lake attracts the diving ducks. Until about mid-October, ducks are number one, but then the snow geese arrive in monstrous flocks and the fun begins. With liberal limits, snow goose hunting provides lots of action.
Grahams Island State Park

Grahams Island State Park just west of the City of Devils Lake and located on the lake is one of the most used North Dakota state parks. It is named after Capt. Duncan Graham, the area’s first white settler who arrived after the War of 1812. With 1,100 acres of wooded land, the park showcases 130 different native plants and a host of shore birds, waterfowl and songbirds. Bird watching is a favorite past-time. The causeway to the Park stretches for miles and is a favorite shoreline fishing destination.

Amenities include modern and primitive camping sites, four sleeping cabins, an activity center, picnic shelters, playground, showers, meeting facilities, RV dump station, cross country ski trails, bait shop and boat ramp. Park reservations: 800.807.4723 or 701.766.4015.

Devils Lake is a destination for campers – whether with an RV or tent – and offers over 17 additional private campgrounds around the lake. Go to devilslake nd.com for campsite locations and more details.

SHOPPING

Downtown Devils Lake is to shopping what the lake is to fishing. Something for everyone. From bait to boutiques. From lures to jewelry. From fishing rods to flowers. From tall tales to service-with-a-smile. From a mall to Mom-and-Pop stores. From gifts to cookies. From coffee to antiques. From blenders to tires. From boats to tea cups. Everything for the family. Everything for the fishermen. Everything for the farmers. Everything for the campers. Everything for visitors to enjoy.

SULLYS HILL – NOW NAMED WHITE HORSE HILL

Take in many educational programs available to the public in the newly constructed outdoor amphitheater. Climb the stairs to the top of the Sullys Hill overlook for a panoramic view of the surrounding rolling hills and prairie. The Devils Lake Vista provides spectacular views of the lake and the hardwood forest that contains American elm, basswood, bur oak and green ash.
Built in 1867, the Fort Totten Historic Site has served many purposes over the decades and has been restored to the look of its use as a fort. If you listen carefully, you can almost hear the soldiers marching in the square. For a more complete history, set aside time to enter the original buildings. Take in the Plummer’s Store and stroll the wooden boardwalks. Stop at the Interpretive Center Gift Shop or take in a play. At the Fort Totten Little Theatre also check out the Traveling Exhibits. And why not complete the experience? Book a room at the Totten Trail Historic Inn (frontier style bed and breakfast).

The downtown area is a historic monument to its origins from the 1880s. The charm of turn-of-the-century brick and design is seen on the buildings lining Main Street. Take a walking tour and view 59 buildings on the National Historic Register.

Stop in to investigate the Lake Region Heritage Center, museum and art gallery that houses the unique history of the Lake Region. Displays include the Old Post Office, Life of the Lake: Devils Lake, The Federal Courtroom and other unique displays.

The Sheriff’s House Museum is a stop where you can step back in time. It features parlors, kitchen and dining rooms, five bedrooms that have changed little from the time the residence was occupied in 1911. It also features exhibits narrating and interpreting the history of Devils Lake.
