Mary Lahammer is a program host and political reporter for Twin Cities Public Television (TPT). Since joining TPT in 1998, she has won several Emmys and numerous other awards in several states for her anchoring, reporting, producing and photography. Lahammer was named Best Capitol Reporters in America by the Washington Post, Best TV Reporter by Minnesota Monthly and Best Newscaster by City Pages Magazine in 2002.

Prior to returning to TPT, Lahammer was an anchor/reporter for an ABC station in Wisconsin and NBC in North Dakota. Mary is a native Minnesotan who began attending the University of Minnesota's Honors College at age 15, there she went on to graduate with Phi Beta Kappa Society and Summa Cum Laude honors. She holds degrees in Journalism and Mass Communications and Constitutional Law History from the University of Minnesota.

Lahammer learned the business under the wing of her father, an Associated Press Capitol reporter for more than three decades. Her State Capitol office is now just around the corner from her father's former stomping grounds.
