WHAT'S in it FOR YOU?

Food Safety

Farm Bureau is committed to providing safe, affordable food for families. We work with farmers and government officials to ensure that food safety is a top priority.

Protecting our Environment

Farm families drink the water, breathe the air and live on the land. Minnesota's farmers demonstrate a strong commitment to protecting and improving our environment by participating in voluntary conservation programs and adopting recommended management practices for enhancing soil, air and water quality.

WHAT'S in it FOR YOU?

Energy

Farm Bureau supports a comprehensive energy approach to reducing our dependence on foreign oil and alleviating the economic hardship for all Americans caused by rising energy costs. This includes renewable energy sources such as ethanol, biodiesel, wind and biomass, nuclear and domestic fossil fuel production.

Animal Care

Ethical animal care is a top priority for Minnesota farmers. It's the right thing to do, and it keeps our animals safe, healthy and disease-free. Farm Bureau believes that animal care decisions should continue to be made by farmers in consultation with their veterinarian.

Strong Rural Communities

Strong, thriving rural communities and a successful agriculture economy go hand in hand. Farm Bureau is dedicated to ensuring that rural Minnesota is able to prosper. Locally, Farm Bureau members are dedicated to local civic involvement and actively work to ensure that their rural communities have access to high quality education and health care, provide a business friendly climate and can compete in a global marketplace.

Farm Bureau is...

Farm Bureau is an organization guided and directed by our over 30,000 member families—farmers, ranchers, teachers, community leaders, husbands, wives, parents and business owners. Each one is concerned about their children, families, communities and making Minnesota a great place to live and work.

We exist to serve members because we share the values they hold dear - hard work, love of community, passion for the land and belief rooted in faith and family. Our services, programs and benefits are rooted in the causes, concerns and needs that are important to our members based on their beliefs and values.

Farm Bureau Beliefs...

America’s unparalleled progress is based on freedom and dignity of the individual, sustained by basic moral and religious concepts. Economic progress, cultural advancement, ethical and religious principles flourish best where people are free, responsible individuals.

Farm Bureau Works to...

- Develop, advocate and implement solid, sound policy
- Develop effective, engaged leaders
- Enhance consumer trust in farmers

Questions

Why Farm Bureau?

Farm Bureau is an association of families banded together to improve their economic well-being and quality of life. Minnesota Farm Bureau is a federation of county and regional Farm Bureaus. When a person joins Farm Bureau, they join their county or regional Farm Bureau.

What are the benefits of being a Farm Bureau Member?

Being part of an organization that cares about families in Minnesota; cares about locally produced food, fiber and renewable energy; cares about the future of your county, state and country. Eligibility to participate in programs that save the member money, for example, such as Farm Bureau insurance and other discount programs. Being part of an organization with more than six million member families in this country.

Do I have to be a Farmer to be a Farm Bureau Member?

Membership is open to everyone.

What's difference between the Minnesota Farm Bureau and Farm Bureau Financial Services?

Minnesota Farm Bureau is a not for profit association that, along with seven other state Farm Bureaus, formed Farm Bureau Financial Services (FBFS). FBFS is a group of for profit companies formed to assist member families with insurance and financial planning needs. Most types of insurance from Farm Bureau agents require a membership.

What Does my Membership Money go Towards?

Farm Bureau membership dues are invested in the promotional, educational and legislative services the organization provides.
