

2018 Teen Leadership Hernando

Student Application

Deadline Date: Wednesday, September 5th, 2018

Teen Leadership Hernando creates opportunities to observe, interact and learn from public, private and civic leaders across the county. The goal is to encourage, and develop leadership through our future generation. This is provided through day sessions throughout the school year where 8th graders are given opportunities throughout the community that allows them to explore their own leadership and consider their future.
