ABOUT YOUR TEACHERSCLIO MANUELIAN

Clio Manuelian is a yogi, a mother, a wife, an ex-NY'er, a former fashionista, a Sutra student, an enlightened mind-in-training, a recovering type A, an emissary for joy and a 500 ERYT through YogaWorks. Practicing since 1995, yoga continues to challenge her body, calm her mind, call her attention, creates her community and serves as a guiding north star in the great navigation of life. Clio's successful career in Fashion PR with top posts at Elle Magazine and Salvatore Ferragamo left her well paid, well dressed and highly stressed. When her son was born, she stepped off the fast track to follow her heart path (the dharma) and began her journey from spinning to centered. At the core of her teachings there is a celebration for the human capacity to expand, love and live more fabulously. She teaches public classes and Teacher Trainings at Equinox and Wanderlust Hollywood and regularly hosts retreats in gorgeous locations. Infused with humor and soul, Clio is a storyteller with a devotion to philosophy. Her classes are physically demanding, energetically empowering, mentally focusing and spiritually up-lifting. They are designed to transform lives. She is ever grateful to all her teachers: Lisa Walford, Tias Little, Joan Hyman, Annie Carpenter, Ruth Lauer-Manenti and Elena Brower, as well as every student who appears to teacher her how to look, listen and connect more joyously.

BRENT LAFFOON

Devoted student and passionate teacher, Brent Laffoon is a Los Angeles based yogic messenger. His easy-going personality, encouraging attitude and unique approach to yoga have made his classes popular among yogis of all levels in L.A. and beyond. Trained in a variety of styles – including Ashtanga, Bhakti and Iyengar – his classes are a fusion of traditional yoga philosophy and postures mixed with a creative blend of conscious movements designed to challenge the body and wake up the mind while providing a safe place for students to explore and grow beyond their perceived limitations.

EMILIE PERZ

Emilie Perz is widely known for her strong, creative and educational vinyasa flow classes. Voted one of Los Angeles' best yoga instructors, Emilie's detail-oriented teachings reveal how yoga asana mirrors the practical movements we make in life and how learning to align the body precisely can create energy and equanimity in the body and mind. With a hands-on approach she guides her students through a rigorous yet refined practice focusing on anatomical and educational cues that inspire students to take control of their own personal health and well-being. Train with Emilie this fall at Equinox, Light on Lotus and Roam Los Angeles.
