Quazar Report – Trade Show & Event Planning Services

Q1 2019

Executive Summary

The U.S. Trade Show & Event Planning Industry is comprised of over 5,700 companies, with aggregated revenue in excess of $16 billion¹. The Industry includes companies that organize, manage, operate, and promote trade shows, conventions, conferences, and meetings. Corbin Ball & Co. reports that 85% of business owners and marketers found a positive ROI from attending trade shows in 2018. Furthermore, 91% of Trade Show attendees claim that attending an exhibition impacted their buying decisions. One of the leading drivers to the trade show industry is technology. Increasing the interactive technology at trade shows has driven business leads through more interaction with mobile applications, virtual reality, and live polls⁴.

Selected Transaction: Centerpoint Marketing

Quazar Business Brokerage (QuazarBusinessBrokerage.com) is pleased to announce the successful sale of Centerpoint Marketing, Inc. ("Centerpoint") to CPM Acquisition Corp. Centerpoint, based in Woodbury, Minnesota, supports companies in executing tradeshows and private events by providing end-to-end design, production, and logistics. This transaction reiterates Quazar's experience with closely held businesses, as well as its strong relationships in the Midwest.

Centerpoint Marketing, Inc. (www.centpoint.com) was founded in 2003, specializing in collaborating with mediumlarge businesses to serve their tradeshow and event management needs through designing, manufacturing, and providing logistical support.

After building a successful and well-regarded business, the Shareholders made a strategic decision to transition the business in order to create liquidity. The Shareholders chose Quazar as their M&A Advisor primarily due to Quazar's

"Quazar ran an impressive marketing process. They brought different types of buyers from throughout the country to the table. Once we decided on the best buyer for the future of the business, Quazar was invaluable in negotiating on our behalf and getting the deal done." - Joel Turunen, former President of Centerpoint Marketing, Inc.
