KEY MEMBERSHIP TERMS & CONDITIONS

(Please note this is not an extensive list of T&C's. These can be provided in-studio or available at sydneypole.com/pricing-membership)

CANCELLATIONS

Must be made in writing to info@sydneypole.com & and online cancellation form completed.

There is no cancellation fee, however we require 30 days' notice (from receipt of cancellation form). Any payments that fall within the 30 days will continue to be processed. ALL unused classes or practice sessions expire immediately upon cancellation date.

CLASS & PRACTICE TIME EXPIRY

Classes & Bonus Classes have 180-day expiry. You must attend any catch-up classes within 180 days or the classes will expire.

Practice sessions are allocated each week and valid for one week only.

Top-Up Class Packs are valid for 90 days.

All classes & practice sessions expire immediately upon cancellation of membership.

FREEZE YOUR MEMBERSHIP

You may freeze your membership for up to 3 months each year. Requests to put your account on hold must be made in writing to info@sydneypole.com

We don't want you stuck with lots of catch-up classes you can't make up, so highly encourage you to freeze if you can't attend.

I AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

- Sydney Pole will charge my preferred payment method fortnightly, starting from the start date I nominated above as my Membership Commencement Date.
- I confirm I have read, understood and agree to the Membership Terms & Conditions
- I understand that if my payment dishonours I will be charged a $14.80 dishonour fee
- I confirm to abide by all Sydney Pole Policies, available at sydneypole.com/sydney-pole-policies
- I understand there is an 8-HOUR CANCELLATION POLICY on all classes and that a LATE CANCEL results in the loss of that class.
- Full Membership T&Cs at sydneypole.com/pricing-membership
