

Wade Burgess

Entrepreneur, Business Leader,
Investor and Advisor

Most recently Burgess served as Chief Executive Officer of Shiftgig, the leading mobile platform that connects businesses with reliable, high-quality workers on demand. In this role he oversaw Shiftgig's product and technology roadmap, sales and support process, and operating practices, with a primary objective of transforming the company from a staffing services company to a software-as-a-service (SaaS) platform.

Prior to joining Shiftgig, Wade was the Vice President of Talent Solutions at LinkedIn where he grew and led LinkedIn Talent Solutions, a multi-billion dollar line of business with sales and support teams in 29 offices around the world, impacting millions of professional hires per year.
