

Ricky Santiago is the Innovations Program Manager in the Office of Performance Improvement and Innovation for the City of Louisville.

Ricky handles digital inclusion initiatives including low cost internet sign up and computer imaging upgrade programs. Originally from Ponce, Puerto Rico, Ricky has lived in Louisville for the past 6 years. Ricky obtained his masters in organizational leadership from Indiana Tech.