

Tera Disdier is the Cross-Border Trade Compliance Manager for Jagged Peak, an eCommerce SAAS company which specializes in high end cosmetics, apparel and nutraceutical brands. During her previous Trade Compliance experience in various industries; including oil & gas, animal feed and aerospace & defense, she has served in leadership roles navigating the everchanging world of international trade through departmental boundaries, while juggling best practices and remaining cognizant of business goals.

As a Cincinnati native, Tera has earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati, and continued her education through a Master's degree in Business Administration with a focus in Global Management from Ashford University.