

Alicia Donloe is an International Account Executive for United Parcel Service and a graduate of University of Louisville where she earned a BS in Economics and a Masters in Business. Alicia has 28 years of experience in transportation and logistics where she spent 14 years with UPS Customs Brokerage. Her recent responsibilities include consulting with customers to grow their business in international markets.